

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON
PORTLAND DIVISION

ESCO CORPORATION,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRADKEN RESOURCES PTY LTD.,

Defendant.

MOSMAN, J.,

CV 10-788-AC

OPINION AND ORDER

On January 31, 2011, Magistrate Judge Acosta issued his Findings and Recommendation (“F&R”) (#82) in the above-captioned case recommending that ESCO’s Petition for Order to Confirm the Arbitration Award (#1) should be granted; Bradken’s Motion to Vacate in Part the Arbitration Award (#29) should be denied; ESCO’s Motion for Imposition of Sanctions (#66) should be denied; ESCO’s request for post-award prejudgment interest should be denied; and ESCO’s request for post-judgment interest should be granted at the federal rate. Both parties filed objections (## 84, 85) and responses (## 87, 88).

DISCUSSION

The magistrate judge makes only recommendations to the court, to which any party may file written objections. The court is not bound by the recommendations of the magistrate judge, but retains responsibility for making the final determination. The court is generally required to make a de novo determination regarding those portions of the report or specified findings or recommendation as to which an objection is made. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C). However, the court is not required to review, de novo or under any other standard, the factual or legal conclusions of the magistrate judge as to those portions of the F&R to which no objections are addressed. See Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 149 (1985); United States v. Reyna-Tapia, 328 F.3d 1114, 1121 (9th Cir. 2003). While the level of scrutiny under which I am required to review the F&R depends on whether or not objections have been filed, in either case, I am free to accept, reject, or modify any part of the F&R. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C).

Upon review, I agree with Judge Acosta's thorough recommendation, and I ADOPT the F&R (#82) as my own opinion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 27th day of April, 2011.
